

Together, strong for our future!

A TRADE UNION FOR ALL EMPLOYEES OF THE FINANCIAL SECTOR.

Our working world is changing. For this and many other reasons, the importance of a reliable and efficient trade union representation remains unchanged. The "Finance and Services" campaign by the OGBL responds to the evolving needs of financial sector workers.

The services sector in Luxembourg has been growing exponentially over the last decades and within this sector, finance and services have recently undergone major changes which will only be further emphasized by digitalization.

Many companies are located right in-between these two sectors, between the financial and service sector. Therefore, the syndicate Financial Sector and the syndicate Services and Energy of the OGBL have now reinforced their cooperation.

This strengthened cooperation between the two syndicates will ensure that employees of these companies are not left without effective representation. On the contrary, this new campaign will help to offer even more efficient and hands-on solutions for all our members and all staff affected.

HELPING WORKERS SUCCEED IN THE WORKING WORLD 4.0

People who work within the financial sector, in the broadest sense of the term, share a quite similar work reality. Whether you work in banking or insurance, whether you are a professional of the financial sector or act as support, whether you work within an investment firm, in the funds industry, a fiduciary, in consulting, in accounting, in auditing, including the "Big 4", a lawyer's office, a management company or within the ICT sector, all employees face the same challenges. Besides central questions regarding pay and remuneration, issues regarding job quality need to be emphasized.

Digitalization has tangible effects on employment, working time, the balance between private and work life, the intensity of the job as well as job security. Continued vocational training is essential as well as protecting workers against economic lay-offs as well as protecting workers during a business ownership transfer, merger or de-merger. Emerging new forms of employment, dematerialisation of businesses and any other aspects of work 4.0 as open space and paperless offices, telework and platform work impact the day-to-day life of thousands of workers.

COMPETENT AND EFFICIENT – BY YOUR SIDE

As the largest trade union in the country, represented in all the sectors of the Luxembourgish economy, we have the necessary experience and expertise to take on these challenges and to help shape the digital future of the working world by putting the interest of the workers first.

It is our goal to represent all employees of the financial sector and all affiliated companies, to provide quality assistance to our staff delegations and members and to initiate and implement new extra-legal sectoral guaranties.

In order to achieve these objectives, two important decisions have been made:

- 1. The OGBL syndicate "Banks and Insurances" has been renamed "Financial Sector" in order to undoubtedly demonstrate that it represents ALL workers of the financial sector.
- 2. The cooperation campaign between the Syndicate Financial Sector and the syndicate Services and Energy will be launched under the slogan of "Finances and Services". We will soon publish a series of information booklets regarding your current working conditions as well as challenges for the future of work to keep you informed about current developments as your rights as workers.

We will continue to fight to improve your working conditions and this newly launched cooperation initiative will help us to offer you the best possible union support all throughout your career.
